Centerville, Tennessee

"Centerville is located in Hickman County, in the Nashville-Davidson metro area. It is the county seat, with an estimated population of 3,940 (in 2003). It is, perhaps, best known for its most famous resident, Minnie Pearl."

(Information used by permission of Hickman County Mayor Steve Gregory.)

(Visit http://www.hickmanco.com/history.htm for more information about Centerville and Hickman County.)

Rebuilding of railroad bridge

The Duck River as it flows forward Grinders Switch

Grinders Switch sign (1940)

Side view of Grinders Switch

Iron bridge crossing the Duck River

Original Grinders Switch station building, moved to new location

